I made a bad decision by Ralph Roy Waggener

In last weeks issue of Smiles I used some very expensive red 50# cover to print it on. Big mistake! We started printing "Just for a Smile" 4 years ago partly because we had a lot of close out paper that I had purchased in deals for large lots of close out stock from different paper distributing companies. We usually made good use of these deals but we ended up with a lot of good paper stock left over. If you have ever noticed Smiles has been printed over the years on very expensive paper.

We save money on printing because we have very little cost in the paper we print it on. The red paper we used last week, if bought at regular wholesale cost, would have been $350.00. And no way affordable to use. We still have a lot of close out paper but not nearly as much as we had 4 years ago.

We make very little on advertising income on Smiles, it's a very popular item in our community and has always tried to point out the good in people in our community. I got pulled into editorials mostly because I believed that I could point out some changes that I felt needed to be made in the finances of our Governments, Boy was I wrong! I only succeeded in making our Gov. Leaders mad for trying to point out places that I thought needed to be improved on. "You can't fight city hall" has been said for years. Anyway I won't use anymore red paper, my apologies for the red paper mistake. No apologies for trying to keep little government honest.

It only takes a few!

The people who thank they have the God given right to empty there ash trays in the middle of the street. Then you have the few that leave grocery baskets where they finish loading their vehicles. The "Trashers" who just don't give a hoot and throw out trash on the streets or wherever they want even in well kept yards all the trashers can be put in the 1 to 2 % of our population.

Only a very few people do the most harm to our city and county by being dead set on destroying the beauty that surrounds us. The most of us take care and consideration of Columbia/ Adair Co. It makes most of us mad when we see trash on the side of the road. There seems to be an alarming increase of people that just simply don't give a darn about other people. But still the number of abusers is just a very small percent of us.

The Garden Club's work in and around Columbia shows people that we care how Columbia looks. And the work by the city and county decorating for Christmas this year has been a very positive improvement in the look of downtown Columbia. Cleaning up around the old courthouse and the lights put up around the courthouse annex plus the lights and decoration of the impressive looking new judicial center make a very enjoyable look for Columbia. The 2 funeral homes with there white exteriors and black trim are both decked out with Christmas red make a large statement about our Columbia.

It only takes a few uncaring people to disrupt the good looks that so many have worked so hard to improve. Both Mayor Mark Harris and Judge Ex. Ann Melton have done a lot to decorate our city and make it so pleasant, and I commend this effort as well as the many businesses that have put out a real effort to make Columbia shine at Christmas as well as other times of the year. Both of our Funerals homes seem to go all out to keep these older structures looking great. (If the funeral homes can do this then so why can't the old court house look as good)?

The church steeples as well as the well maintained churches add a lot to say about Columbia. Most all Columbians help in many ways to make a trip to Columbia memorable. Betty's O. K. Country Cooking has decorations for every season and holiday put up and each year seems to get better and larger and

A lady bought a new Lexus. Cost a bundle. Two days later, she brought it back complaining that the radio wasn't working. "Madam", said the sales manager, "the audio system in this car is completely automated. All you need to do is tell it what you want to listen to and you will hear exactly that!" She drives out, somewhat amazed and a little confused. She looked at the radio and said, "Nelson". The radio responded, "Ricky or Willie?" Soon she was speeding down the highway to the sounds of "On the road again". The lady was astounded. If she wanted Beethoven, that's what she got. If she wanted Nat King Cole, she got it. Stopped at an intersection, her light turned green and she pulled out. Off to her right, out of the corner of her eye, she saw a small sports utility vehicle speeding toward her. She swerved and narrowly missed a collision. "idiot...", she muttered. And from the radio... "Ladies and gentlemen, the President of the United States..."

"Funny signs"

1. On a Tennessee highway: "When this sign is under water, this road is impassable."
2. On a fixit-shop: We can fix anything! (Please knock loudly, doorbell broken)
3. On a radiator repair garage: "Best place to take a leak."
4. Seen on a Taco Bell sign in Coralville, Iowa: "Everyday low value"

something to look forward to see. I found out recently that Betty makes a lot of her inside decorations herself. In my neighborhood the Rice Addition I see more and more trash in the streets and ditches and I just can't figure why anyone would do this. No one living in this area would do such a thing, and yet we have people come here to throw away their McDonalds and other left over fast food wrappers in the street, go figure why would someone go to the expense of driving through a dead end street to throw garbage out their window. Again it's only a very few that trash our city, less than 2% perform the most damage. I would suggest that people report anyone trashing our streets and I would ask the police to go talk to the offenders and ask them to stop. A fine of a very small amount and have the offenders pick up 2 bags of litter along our streets as education to what problems they cause. We have a $300.00 fine for littering that I have never heard of anyone paying, most police officers would not fine a youngster this much for littering.
